Chant	Darren (Daz)	-	Regimental Sergeant Major	1st	5-Sep-1969	3-Nov-2009	42	Unknown	Warrant Officer 1st Class (R.S.M) Chant was born in Walthamstow on 5 September 1969. He completed his basic training at the Guards Depot, Pirbright, in 1986 and was deployed to South Armagh, Northern Ireland, in 1993. WO1 (R.S.M) Chant leaves behind his beloved wife Nausheen or 'Sheenie'. He also has three children from a previous marriage, Connor, Victoria and Adam.
Warrant Officer Class 1 (Regimental Sergeant Major) Darren Chant along with two other Grenadier Guards; Sergeant Matthew Telford, Guardsman Jimmy Major and two members of Royal Military Police. Corporal Steven Boote and Corporal Nicholas Webster-Smith were killed in Afghanistan on 3rd November 2009, in an incident at a police checkpoint in Nad e-Ali. The soldiers were part of a mixed team from the 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards. The team had been tasked with mentoring a number of members of the Afghan National Police at the checkpoint. The Grenadier Guards Battle Group had identified the need for increased mentoring of the Afghan National Police within its area of operations. WO1 (R.S.M) Chant and his team were sent to a police checkpoint of vital importance as it provided protection to the bazaar area of Nad e-Ali where the Battle Group's Forward Operating Base is located.
After an attachment to the Pathfinder Platoon from 1997 to 1999, he returned to the 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards before being posted to the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst (RMAS) as a Colour Sergeant instructor until 2003. At Sandhurst WO1 (R.S.M) Chant quickly made a name for himself with his straight-talking, no nonsense approach to training and soldiering. After two years at Sandhurst, WO1 (R.S.M) Chant rejoined the 1st Battalion. As Company Sergeant Major of Inkerman Company he deployed to Bosnia from Sept 2004 to June 2005 as part of NATO's, and latterly the European Union's, peacekeeping operation. On return from Bosnia he was posted back to RMAS as a C.S.M from Aug 2005 until Dec 2006 where he met his future wife Nausheen.
After a year at RMAS he returned to the 1st Battalion, firstly as a Liaison Officer for the battalion while deployed to Afghanistan on Operation HERRICK 6 in 2007. On return to the UK he took up the post of R.Q.S (Technical). In the summer of 2008 he was appointed Sergeant Major and moved with the 1st Battalion to London, and on to pre-deployment training. In Sept 2009 he deployed to Afghanistan on Operation HERRICK 11 as Sergeant Major of the 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards.
Lieutenant Colonel Roly Walker, Commanding Officer, 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards, said: "Darren Chant, the 'Sarn't Major', died only a few hours ago, at the hands of men he was helping. His death is profoundly sad for the Grenadier Guards and our Battle Group. "He was the senior soldier, and cast from the original model of a Guards Regimental Sergeant Major. He was such a big character. He knew the answer to all our problems; he could make anyone laugh; and he worked tirelessly for everyone in the Battle Group. "Daz was an immaculate Regimental Sergeant Major and it was a tremendous honour and privilege to have known him, to have drank with him, to have laughed with him, and to have been a Grenadier alongside him.
Major Mark 'Vince' Gaunt "He relished the opportunity to put himself where his soldiers were. He had a deep instinctive wish to make a positive difference to the lives of our soldiers and the Afghans, so he put himself forward to better understand the operation from the ground up. "And thus he found himself commanding a team from the Headquarters, working with the Afghan police in a small village in southern Afghanistan. In a few short weeks he'd changed the relationship between the police and the villagers for the better. "To them he was the face of integrity and professional conduct, and on him rested their hopes for a better future. But his success was a threat, and he was cowardly struck down. "The sun has set here in Afghanistan, and with it has gone a tremendously brave soldier and personal friend, taken down in his prime. He had such a bright military career ahead as a Late Entry Commissioned Officer. He's on a journey home now, borne with all the dignity this proud man deserves, to an adoring family. They can be so proud of him. "All that remains here is an enormous gap in our ranks; but in time our memories of him will overfill the void."
