Major	James (Jimmy)	-	Guardsmen	1st	12-Nov-1990	3-Nov-2009	18	Unknown	Guardsmen Major was born in Grimsby on 12th November 1990. Guardsman Major leaves behind his mother Kim, father Adrian, brothers Lewis and Daniel, sister Paige, and grandparents Harry and Pat Gilliatt, and June and Fred Major.
Guardsmen Jimmy Major along with two other Grenadier Guards; Warrant Officer Class 1 (Regimental Sergeant Major) Darren Chant, Sergeant Matthew Telford and two members of Royal Military Police. Corporal Steven Boote and Corporal Nicholas Webster-Smith were killed in Afghanistan on 3rd November 2009, in an incident at a police checkpoint in Nad e-Ali. The soldiers were part of a mixed team from the 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards. The team had been tasked with mentoring a number of members of the Afghan National Police at the checkpoint. The Grenadier Guards Battle Group had identified the need for increased mentoring of the Afghan National Police within its area of operations. WO1 (R.S.M) Chant and his team were sent to a police checkpoint of vital importance as it provided protection to the bazaar area of Nad e-Ali where the Battle Group's Forward Operating Base is located. Lieutenant Colonel Roly Walker, Commanding Officer, 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards, said: "Guardsmen James Major died alongside others with whom he was working to mentor Afghan police and, through them, bring security and hope to a small dusty village in southern Afghanistan. "He died from the hands of a man he was there to help. It was a tragic and cowardly attack. It was so at odds with the amazing results the men had achieved with the police and villagers in a short time. "Jimmy Major had not been with us long. But in the short time he had served with the 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards, he had impressed us with his enthusiasm and soldierly talents. He was always the first to volunteer for a patrol, and wanted to be at the front. "He resented being left behind in the base to man the radio or the sentry positions, even though it was his turn. He was a really good young soldier, and he kept spirits high amongst the team with a great sense of humour, positive energy, and remarkable culinary skills. "He died young, as soldiers tend to in war. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family, to whom he has begun his final journey.
