Shadrake	Jamie	-	Guardsman	1st	-	17-Aug-2012	20	Unknown	Jamie Shadrake of South Wales, Killed whilst on sentry duty during enemy action in Nahr-e Saraj Helmand Province, Afghanistan
Guardsman Shadrake, who joined the Army in 2009, died of gunshot wounds when his checkpoint was attacked by insurgents in the Nahr-e Saraj district of Helmand Province. His family described him as a "tremendous son and brother". They added: "He was proud to be a soldier and died doing a job that he loved. We are all devastated by the loss of Jamie who was such a loving son and brother. "We are very proud of the fact that Jamie was prepared to do his duty in helping the people of Afghanistan. Jamie lit up any room with his infectious smile. He will be sorely missed by so many who loved him. "His commanding officer, Lt Col James Bowder MBE, said: "Guardsman Shadrake was an extraordinary young man. "Bright, committed and imbued with boundless energy, his enthusiasm and lust for life were infectious. "He was a talented soldier with a huge amount to offer and would have gone a long way in the Army. Indeed, he was determined to do so, not least in order to impress his elder brother who is a platoon sergeant in the Battalion. "Our thoughts and prayers are with his parents and siblings at this extremely difficult time."
