Telford	Matthew	-	Sergeant	1st	10-Oct-1972	3-Nov-2009	37	Unknown	Sergeant Telford was born in Grimsby and passed out of the Guards Depot in February 1991 and was immediately posted to the 2nd Battalion Grenadier Guards. On amalgamation of the 1st and 2nd Battalions in 1993, Sergeant Telford was transferred to the 1st Battalion where he served until 2004. In 2004 he was posted to Nijmegen Company, where he served for two years before being detached as a regimental recruiter. In early 2009 he returned to the battalion as the Regimental Police Sergeant. Sergeant Telford leaves behind his beloved wife Kerry and two sons, Harry and Callum.
Sergeant Matthew Telford along with two other Grenadier Guards; Warrant Officer Class 1 (Regimental Sergeant Major) Darren Chant, Guardsman Jimmy Major and two members of Royal Military Police. Corporal Steven Boote and Corporal Nicholas Webster-Smith were killed in Afghanistan on 3rd November 2009, in an incident at a police checkpoint in Nad e-Ali. The soldiers were part of a mixed team from the 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards. The team had been tasked with mentoring a number of members of the Afghan National Police at the checkpoint. The Grenadier Guards Battle Group had identified the need for increased mentoring of the Afghan National Police within its area of operations. WO1 (R.S.M) Chant and his team were sent to a police checkpoint of vital importance as it provided protection to the bazaar area of Nad e-Ali where the Battle Group's Forward Operating Base is located.
Sergeant Matt Telford was temporarily employed as a mentor to the Afghan National Police (A.N.P). As the Regimental Police Sergeant he was perfectly placed to work with such a team drawn from soldiers of the 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards and the Royal Military Police. The team had been tasked with mentoring a number of members of the A.N.P at a checkpoint. The Grenadier Guards Battle Group had identified the need for increased mentoring of the Afghan National Police within its area of operations. Sergeant Telford was part of a 16-man team who were sent to a police checkpoint of vital importance as it provided protection to the bazaar area of Nad e-Ali where the Battle Group Forward Operating Base is located.
Lieutenant Colonel Roly Walker, Commanding Officer, 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards, said: "Sergeant Telford, a quiet giant of a man, has died. He was working with a small detachment of Afghan police to improve security in a village infiltrated by insurgents. "As the Regimental Police Sergeant for the 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards, he was well placed to help the police learn new skills; and as a soldier he was more than ready to face the challenges. So his death at the hands of those he was helping is all the more tragic. "His was an unwavering and reliable presence in the battalion. His easy-going style and happy humour made him everyone's friend. "He was thriving in his role as a police mentor, and his spirits were high because he could see the results in the men he was working with - both our troops and the Afghans. He was utterly professional in his duty, and the respect he had from the villagers was clear to anyone who visited. "Our loss is as nothing to that of his family and close friends. Our deepest condolences go with him on his final journey home."
Warrant Officer Class 2 Miles, Company Sergeant Major, Headquarter Company, 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards, said: "There aren't enough quality words to describe Sergeant Matthew Telford. He was a giant of a man in both the physical and personal sense. "I knew him personally for 18 years; his sense of humour was infectious and where morale was needed Matt always provided it in spades. "The consummate soldier, his professionalism and leadership were the envy of most of the regiment. Posted out from the battalion for a few years, he returned as the same compassionate and understanding man, who when someone really needed support he was able to offer it without question. "Bravery for Matt came with the territory; he led by example and expected nothing of his soldiers that he personally would not undertake. "To say Matt was a totally committed family man probably wouldn't do him justice. His family was his life, he talked about them constantly and my heart sincerely goes out to them at this difficult time. "To serve with Matthew was an honour and a privilege, and I really couldn't be more proud to call myself his Company Sergeant Major, but more than anything, his friend."
